Investment Manager's Review

Equity indices performed strongly in October and risk-on mood continued in equity markets. Q3 earnings season is currently on and as bit over half of the S&P500 companies have reported, Q3 results have been very positive. Approximately 80 % of companies have reported positive surprises and EPS growth has been around 7.7 %. Also economic data was strong in October as Q3 GDP growth in US was better than expected and bond yields hit highest since March. Volatility stayed low levels in October. Slim Tail Equity Fund was fully invested for the whole month and ended up +2.3%
