Slim Tail Equity Fund

Monthly Review 30.6.2017

Investment Manager's Review

June was again a slightly positive month for both equity markets and for the Slim Tail strategy. In June, we saw once again new highs in US Equity indices. S&P 500 ended up +0.48 % for the month and Slim Tail Fund captured that by ending up +0,5% in June. Bond yields rose a bit towards end of the month and bond momentum remained in a negative territory. Slim Tail fund is still fully invested, but there is a possibility that the fund might start scaling exposure down in July.
